

GENERAL RULES & REGULATIONS

In the event of conflict between the general rules and the special rules governing the various departments, the special rules will take precedence.

The Board reserves the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, connected with or incident to, the Fair.

The Board reserves the right to amend or add to these rules, as it, in its judgment, may deem advisable.

ENTRIES

1. An Exhibitor Number has been assigned by the Washington County Treasurer's office to allow better tracking of fair premiums and expedite payment of prize money. If you did not have an entry in the 2009 fair, please contact the Washington County Treasurer's Office for your new number or receive it as you bring your entry to the 2010 fair.
2. The filing of a signed entry form by the exhibitor constitutes a contract between the Washington County Fair and the exhibitor. It indicates the exhibitor's acceptance of Fair department rules and his/her eligibility for premium prize awards as offered by the Washington County Fair.
3. Entry form and charge must be submitted by dates published in this premium catalog.
4. When sufficient entries are received in any department to fill the space available, no further entries will be accepted. To insure entry, it is essential that it be made well in advance of the closing time.
5. A protest against judging, premium book rules, exhibition displays, damage to an exhibit or a disagreement with fair personnel, shall be made in writing to the Fair Chairman stating the exact reason for the complaint. The Fair Chairman and the Fair Board shall consider and act on the complaint.
6. Every exhibit must remain intact until Monday, August 16th, 2010 when they can be picked up between the hours of 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM. All remaining items will be taken to the Washington County Extension Office, 44 North 100 East, in St. George.

LIABILITY OF EXHIBITORS AND PATRONS

In no case shall the Washington County Fair or any of its officers be held responsible for damages in any loss, damage, injury, death or disability by disease or from theft or from any other cause to any such property, or to any person coming upon said Fair area while said persons or property are on said Fair area. The Washington County Fair hereby refuses to assume any responsibility for the safety as bailee or otherwise, or any property brought upon said Fair area, and kept upon said grounds at owner's risk.

The management reserves the right to exclude from the grounds any person or persons whom they deem undesirable, or expel from the grounds such person or persons who shall violate any of the general or special department rules.

PATRON RULES

1. A patron parking on the Fair parking lot shall pay a parking charge. The charge, which is subject to change, shall be posted at the entrance of the parking area. The management shall not be responsible for damage to vehicles or theft of property from vehicles.
2. The management reserves the right to remove from the Fair area any person who violates the rules of the Fair.
3. The management reserves the right to remove from the Fair area any persons or person distributing advertising material or conducting private business who does not have an authorized Exhibit Space Lease Agreement.
4. A patron involved in any type of accident while in the Fair area shall contact any available Fair Board member and request that a security officer complete an official accident report.
5. No pets, bicycles, motorcycles, roller-blades, roller-skates, skateboards or golf carts shall be allowed in the Fair area without written approval of the Fair Board management. Seeing eye dogs are the only exception.
6. A patron purchasing merchandise or entering into contracts with commercial, educational and non-profit exhibitors is responsible for his transactions. The Fair shall not assume responsibility for faulty merchandise or for agreements entered into by a patron.
7. A patron shall not litter the Fair Park. Trash shall be placed in barrels provided.
8. A patron shall not deface the grounds or buildings, outside or inside. Anyone damaging buildings or grounds shall be required to pay all repair and replacement costs.

9. No fires or flammable materials are allowed in the Fair area without written approval of Fair Board management.

10. Patron shall not remove property from the buildings and grounds.

11. A patron shall adhere to the hours of the Fair which shall be posted in the Fair Book under Schedule of Events.
